SUMMER 2014

Make Your Summer a Time of Prayer

If you don't have love and faith, I don't believe that you can pray. The love begins with self-love, as the spiritual prophets have told us, then progresses to love and prayer for others. Prayer has been the stronghold of my life. I was sitting on the floor one day meditating over our church, and I had sat so long I couldn't get up. I was stuck, my back had frozen on me. My prayer changed from bless this church to help me rise, O God Most High. I did have to be patient and wait which became another prayer altogether.

Prayer works when you believe. Some people pray for an empty parking space, some for remission of cancer, and some for the end of a war. Some pray to be released from life, and some pray for all of this and much more. What kind of prayers are most likely to be answered? Scientific research seems to be finding that it is prayers we truly believe in, the ones in which we invest our deepest emotions and our strongest desires, regardless of how we choose to voice our pleas.

I believe and utilize two types of prayer styles. The first is called directed prayer. It is where we pray for a specific outcome. We tell God exactly what we want and ask that it be granted. This is a form of prayer that Jesus taught: "Whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you received it, and it will be yours." (Mark 11:24 NKJV) The other is non directed prayer. We practice this when we do not direct God, but rather place our concerns in His hands and ask or trust Him to do whatever is best and right in the greater overall scheme.

I believe that both styles work, they have for me. I believe that love and compassion and deep caring are qualities that make for effective prayers. We can worship God in prayer; we can praise God in prayer; we can say, "Thank you so much!" and at times say, "Gimme, Gimme!" A prayer may be spoken, thought, felt, sung, whispered. A prayer may be wordy or wordless. A prayer can be a state of being, an attitude-perhaps one of reverence, adoration, confession, or, as some like to say on the term atonement, prayer may be simply a state of at-one-ment with God. We can pray on our knees, on our bellies, in our cars, while walking, or while talking. We cannot place limits on prayer. Prayer for each of us is "my soul's adventure with God," as Dr. Robert Schuller has said.

Have a Blessed Summer and May God Be With You Joe

Please pay attention and take this message in the right spirit.

SOMETIMES IT NEEDS TO BE SAID

Alright...sometimes it's OK to be casual, but sometimes casual is TOO casual!

Alright...sometimes it's OK to be noisy, but sometimes noisy is TOO noisy!

Alright...sometimes it's OK to be rude, but sometimes rude is REALLY rude!

As a member of Norview UMC for sixty years, I feel that I can voice my opinion in the church newsletter without backlash...especially when other people are talking to me about certain things continually, and they're too fearful to speak up about them--So here goes...

- 1) Drinks and food in the sanctuary during worship should not be happening. Now it is quite understood about those folks who need water for dry mouth, but the rest of us can wait at least one hour before having to indulge in food and beverages. This practice is not only messy for those who clean the sanctuary, but it is just not reverent in God's house on Sunday morning. We did not build a short order cafe to worship and praise his holy name--so let's keep the area free of crumbs, spills, and critters that crawl.
- 2) The level of noise before worship is overwhelmingly loud - not at all calming for those who come to God's house for reverence and reflection... not to speak of the announcements on the screens we are supposed to be watching. If you need to talk about something, use your "inside voice" and speak in a quiet manner. Also, when you see the countdown on the screen and the organist begins the prelude, please sit down and be quiet. First of all, it is rude to talk while she is playing, and second, some of us would like to listen and reflect. Just whisper before church and maybe even let someone know that you would like to talk to them AFTER the service is over. Hey, Guys, let's stop the loud talking before and during the worship service every Sunday - ME included!!! We are here to worship and praise God!
- 3) Next, folks are talking about all the people who (for whatever reason) walk right down in front of the sanctuary and then cross in front of Pastor Joe while he's trying to preach us a sermon. Come on, folks...this is not rocket science to realize this is rude. Joe works hard to prepare a good sermon for us every Sunday, and some of us come to hear what he has to say, but it is very distracting when folks walk in front of him and out the side door. Please walk around back of the pews, and you might consider going out to the narthex for the restroom or just use the side narthex door and cross over to the office door and come back inside to use the restrooms or go to the nursery area. There are several ways to leave the sanctuary besides walking directly in front of the preacher while he's standing in the pulpit.

I hope that nobody takes any of these remarks personally. I don't mean them that way. I am just tired of people complaining of all these things to me but not speaking up elsewhere. SO Your trustworthy "Mouth of the South" has done it again and said what needed to be said. I hope you still love me even with my faults. Norview is my church family and sometimes family has to tell it like it is.

In Christian Love and Friendship, Anne Manning Anglen

Gwen Pullen has graciously accepted the position of chairperson of the Worship Team for Norview UMC. On Monday, May 12, the team met and discussed the following issues/items. We hope these designations and changes made by the Worship Team will help make our worship time together even better. If you have suggestions or want to discuss any of these items, just speak with the designated person taking care of that particular item under "Worship." Please try to give positive, workable suggestions.

- 1) Food and drink in the Sanctuary on Sunday during worship has been an ongoing problem. It was decided that folks need to eat and drink outside the sanctuary due to stains on the carpet as well as setting a good example for reverence during worship. Only bottled water will be acceptable during worship on Sunday. Leave coffee cups, canned drinks and food outside the sanctuary.
- 2) Pledge to the US Flag - It was suggested by members outside the worship team that we not use the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag every Sunday in the service. A decision was made to say the Pledge only on First Sundays and "Patriotic" Sundays for a time. Please let Pastor Joe or Gwen Pullen know (in writing) how you like this new arrangement for the Pledge.
- 3) Prayers, Praises, and Concerns - this item in the worship services tends to run too long and thus the pastor has to cut short his sermon or the service runs overtime, so it will be taken out of the service. Folks need to use the prayer request cards and Joe will announce in church important things that did not get into the bulletin.
- 4) Ron Brinkley has agreed to be our "Head Usher" for Sundays and needs volunteers to assist him.
- 5) Bill Lloyd has agreed to act as our "Front Door Greeter" for Sunday mornings to assist people who enter through the front door. Beware - Bill might tap you on the shoulder one week to substitute for him if he's not able to be here one Sunday.
- 6) Gwen will continue to fill the pews each week with cards, envelopes, and pencils. She could really use an assistant now that Velma Birkel has moved.
- 7) Deb Awbrey volunteered to change our altar paraments when needed for each season of the church calendar.
- 8) Liz Clark and Beverly Manry will be in charge of decorating the altar for specific worship and special holidays.
- 9) Outreach Communion Teams - Spud and Mary Hadley and Dolores Cooper and Beverly Manry need help with this important ministry to our church members. Please talk to Spud and Mary if you can volunteer to take communion to members who can no longer attend church. Come on, it's only once a month.
- 10) Attendance & Prayer Cards - Beginning June 1st, the red attendance pads will once again be used to write down your name for Sunday attendance count. The cards have been wonderful for prayer requests, but it is difficult when one person needs the cards for attendance and another person needs them for prayer list. Double sided "Prayer Request Cards" shall be placed in the pew holders for people to fill out for prayers, concerns, joys and praises. Just continue to drop your prayer request cards in the collection plate during the offering and pass the red attendance pads around for everyone to sign on Sunday.

Being a male species does not make a man a father, for a dad is a special blend of hero; disciplinarian; a friend; someone to look up to; someone to model...someone with a touch of the "mother" in him; someone who is big enough to say, "The fault was mine"...someone who lives the kind of life that makes you want to say, "I, too, shall follow Him!"

NUMC FOOD PANTRY NAME CONTEST

We need a "special" name for our Food Pantry here at the church and back in January we asked all church members to submit a name. When we obtain our 501(c)3 grant status, the food pantry must be separate from the church in order to apply for funding, so we need a catchy name to call it and to advertise to the community. The name cannot have the words "United Methodist Church" as part of the name. Quite a few people were creative and came up with some catchy names. Now we need to pick a winner. A gift card will be the prize for the winner. Ballots will be distributed in church and a basket placed on the communion rail for your votes some Sunday soon. What will it be?

Joe's Food Joint...Anne's Angelic food Pantry...God's Glorious Food Bank...Deb's Delicious Food Ditties...Dave's Fast Food o rama...Leslie's Lick Life & Live Food Pantry...Bev's Backdoor Food Pantry...Vivian's Vittles???

Food Pantry is now in need of peanut butter, jelly, canned meats, spaghetti sauce, and canned goods such as peas, potatoes, carrots, tomatoes, and beets. Also, if you or someone you know needs food on Sunday morning, just ask Pastor Joe or Anne Anglen or David Clark. Don't just help yourself to whatever you find in the kitchen. That is taking without asking (or stealing). JUST ASK!

"A pessimist sees only the dark side of the clouds, and mopes; a philosopher sees both sides, and shrugs; an optimist doesn't see clouds at all - he's walking on them."

Leonard Louis Levinson

When you encounter troubles, deciding how to react can make a difference between living your life to the fullest or letting your problems get the best of you.

Are you a pessimist or an optimist? Do you see the glass as half empty or half full? We all have choices when adversity comes our way. The optimist sees adversity as a challenge and learning experience, and uses it in a positive way. The pessimist sees adversity as a "larger than life" problem and suffers as a result. Just the worry can make things seem insurmountable. Yes...it is hard to change your way of thinking, but not impossible. If you can ride out the storm, rather than worrying about the damage that might come, you will have fewer sleepless nights. When you can think clearly and positively, the best part is that the most surprising solutions are free to come to mind, maybe showing you how to avoid the next storm altogether. Possible solutions or tiresome worry - the result is ultimately up to you.

SUMMER 2014
 Deadline for September
 August 17, 2014

Traveling Games

A lot of people take vacations in the summer.

Here are two fun games you can play during trips in the car!

"NOW!"

1. The driver picks an object he sees a mile or so down the road.
2. Players close their eyes.
3. When a player thinks the car is about to pass the object, he or she calls out, "Now!"

Alphabet Race

Find the letters of the alphabet in order using the letters on the license plates of other cars.

To make it more challenging, start at the letter Z and work backwards to A.

Another way to play the game is to pick a word and then try to find the letters that spell your word.

Vacation Time

Where do you like to go on vacation? Check out these places from the Bible. Use the Scripture verses below to find these places in the puzzle. (If a verse has more than one place, only one is in the puzzle. Figure out which one.) Circle each place in the puzzle.
